

AVC - Exclusive AUDAC distributor Russia

AUDAC is delighted to announce a partnership with Russian AV-Centre as the new exclusive distributor of their innovative audio solutions in Russia. They will be managing the sales, distribution and service of the complete AUDAC product line in Russia from their offices in St. Petersburg and Moscow. AVC provides a large range of audio equipment which now will be supported by AUDAC's experience and products.

AVC looks towards the partnership, "We are excited to introduce the AUDAC family of audio products to the Russian market" remarks Tatiana Schurova Managing Director of AVC. "Their vision has always been focused on providing the right product for the customer."

"Now AUDAC can add value to the customer experience in Russia with our complete line of products" says Bart Vandermot sales executive of AUDAC "These high quality products have proven to be a reliable solution around the world, and with this partnership in Russia we can extend our reach".
